IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINALL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.319 OF 2004

Bukesh Gyanchand Singh .. Appellant

vs.

The State of Maharashtra .. Respondent.

Advocate for the Applicant.

Mr. , Advocate for the Respondent.

CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J.

DATED : 25th January, 2005.

P.C. :

1. None present for the petitioner. Shri B.H.Mehta, APP present for the respondent.

2. Perused the records. The petitioner challenges the order passed by the trial Court and the Revisional Court dismissing the complaint filed by the petitioner. Both the courts on analysing all the material on record have arrived at the concurrent finding about the absence of any case being made out for proceeding against the accused and in the absence of prima facie case being made out the complaint filed by the petitioner has been dismissed by the Magistrate and the said order has been confirmed by the Revisional Court. The findings arrived by the courts below do not disclose any perversity or arbitrariness and they do not warrant any interference in the matter under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. Hence Writ Petition is rejected.
